Give Committees a Chance.

THE Senate held a short session yesterday morning, transacting but little business and adjourning untilthis morning in order that the commit-tees might have time to complete their reports on various matters.

After the reading of the minutes
President Russel attempted to follow his old method of ordering the minutes approved, but was corrected by Cecil Brown, who informed the chair that they might just as well abide by the rules which provided that the vote of the house should be taken. Upon the proper motion from Carter this was

A joint resolution from the lower House, proposed by John Emmeluth and pertaining to the fire limits, had its first reading before the Senate.

Baldwin claimed that it was not presented in the proper form and moved that the resolution be returned to the House for correction, Carried, Senator Kalauokalani moved for suspension of the rules in order that he be granted more time to complete his report on the leper settlement at Molokal. He was supported by Carter and the motion carried.

White reported that he had visited the Governor in regard to the proposed change of quarters and that everything was in readiness and the change could be effected this afternoon if the Senate so willed. The vote was taken and the Senate will meet in the Bungalow on Monday morning.

Achi gave notice of his intention to introduce the following bill: "An act regulating the mortgaging or leasing of real estate by guardians.'

For the fourth time the bill from the lower House for an appropriation of money to meet the expenses of the Legislature was brought before the Senate and this time it was given its first reading.

"We have received trustworthy in-formation to the effect that the Japan papers have-killed (dead as a door-nail) our much beloved, able and shrewd guide, counseller and friend, Li Hung Chang, great benefactor of the whole earth (especially our friendly whole earth (especially our Triendly nieghbor), and we are consequently overburdened with grief and quite inconsolable and may remain so for countiess decades. Let all the people throughout our vast Celestial empire know this therefore, and take note of the fact that we have consequently conferred the most exaited posthumous honor of Expectani-Emperor on the said all Hung Chang, and have further decided that if a very proper reparation is not made within two months that we will wage relentless warfare against those who have been guilty of such a foul outrage either by word or

Another Busy Day.

HAT the 13th day of the proceed-Friday did not seem to disturb the solons of that important body with superstitious forebodings. There was no apparent fear that the coincidence of the fatal number thirteen being merged into a day of the week which is generally shunned when important matters are to be considered, would upset prearranged plans for the introduction or consideration of measures.

A large number of bills were on the order of the day for consideration, and most of the members were printed with arguments pro and con. A full half hour was used in listening to the pray-er given by the chappels, and the reading of the minutes, in English and Hawaiian. At 10:30 the minutes of the preceding day were adopted without objection, and the House then rolled up its sleeves and plunged into its
